

Year 3 Discovery Box 2 Transcript

The Noisy Miner is using its fairly long, pointed beak to get nectar from the eucalypt blossoms.

The Rainbow Lorikeet is also getting nectar from the eucalypt blossoms, but it's using its long, rough tongue not its beak to do this.