

Transcript: Discovery Box 3

This is a Blue-faced Honeyeater and you can tell by the blue patch around its eye that it is a mature adult bird,

Whereas this one is not yet mature as it has a green bronze colour around its eye and has not yet developed the blue colour that it will have as an adult.